Stakeholder Meeting – Update and Change of Meeting Room at AUC

Based on the comments received the MSA confirms it will hold a stakeholder meeting on April 12, 2017. Currently, there is still space for several additional attendees so if would like to attend please advise Amy Siciliano at amy.siciliano@albertamsa.ca as soon as possible, and in any event no later than noon on April 11, 2017. Attendees will need to be on a list of attendees in order to access the room.

Please note that there has been a room change. The meeting will still be held at the offices of the Alberta Utilities Commission in Calgary at the time previously indicated. Full information about the meeting location and time is below. The MSA regrets that teleconferencing facilities will not be available for the meeting.
