Re: Compliance Process

The recent approval of AUC Rule 027 has prompted the need for minor consequential amendments to the MSA Compliance Process. As indicated in section 6 of the current MSA Compliance Process, consequential amendments or other non-material changes to the document will not require stakeholder consultation in respect of such amendments.

In the course of this amendment, the document content has been migrated to the revised MSA report format including the addition of a reference list at the end of the document.
